

Well Check Appointment	What to expect at your appointment	Appointment	What to Expect	Appointment	What to Expect
Newborn	Beyfortus (in season)	12 month	MMR #1, Prevnar #4, Varicella #1, Lead Test, Hemoglobin, iScreen (vision screen), Social Determinants of Health screener (SDOH)	5-10 years	Vision screen, hearing screen, SDOH annually
2 week	Review newborn screen results, Maternal Depression Screen	15 month	Dtap #4, Hep A #1, Hib #4	11 year	Tdap, Menveo, Gardasil, Cholesterol Check, vision screen, hearing screen, SDOH
2 month	Pediarix (Dtap #1, Hep B #1/2, IPV #1), Prevnar #1, Hib #1, Rotarix #1 (oral), Maternal Depression Screen	18 month	MCHAT (developmental milestones screen), Ages & Stages Questionnaire	12-15 year	Depression screen, vision screen, SDOH
4 month	Pediarix (Dtap #2, Hep B #3, IPV #2), Prevnar #2, Hib #2, Rotarix #2 (oral), Maternal Depression Screen	24 month	Hep A #2, Lead Test, MCHAT, iScreen, SDOH	16 year	Menveo, Bexsero #1, Depression Screen, hearing screen, SDOH
6 month	Pediarix (Dtap #3, Hep B #4, IPV #3), Prevnar #3, Hib #3, influenza (if season), Maternal Depression Screen	30 month	Ages & Stages Questionnaire	17 year	Bexsero #2, Cholesterol Check, Depression Screen, Vision screen
9 month	Ages & Stages Questionnaire, influenza (if season)	3 year	iScreen, SDOH	18 year - 21 year	Yearly depression screen, Vision screen and hearing screen
		4 year	Kinrix (Dtap #5, IPV #4), MMR #2, Varivax #2, iScreen, Hearing screen, SDOH

The AAP recommends the corresponding labs, immunizations and/or procedures to be completed at annual well checks based on age, however, each child and family is unique; therefore, these recommendations may vary by child.

PLEASE NOTE: Insurance plans vary considerably, and we cannot predict or guarantee what part of our services will or will not be covered. We encourage you to refer to information from your insurance company or call them if you have questions about your coverage.

HepB: hepatitis B, a serious liver disease

DTaP: diphtheria, tetanus (lockjaw), and pertussis (whooping cough)

Prevnar: pneumococcal conjugate vaccine protects against a serious blood, lung, and brain infection

Hib: Haemophilus influenzae type b, a serious brain, throat, and blood infection

IPV: polio, a serious paralyzing disease

Rotarix: rotavirus infection, a serious diarrheal disease

Influenza: a serious lung infection

MMR: measles, mumps, and rubella

HepA: hepatitis A, a serious liver disease

Varivax: Chickenpox; also called varicella

Tdap: prevents lock jaw and protects the lungs from whooping cough

Menveo: protects the brain and lining from infections that occur in the blood

Bexsero: protects the brain and lining from infections that occur in the blood

Gardasil: protects against diseases caused by some types of Human Papillomavirus (HPV)